THIS WEEK

THURSDAY

THE MATTHEW PROJECT CHARITY are holding their annual remembrance service, Norfolk Remembers, on 23 September at St. Peter Mancroft Church. This event offers time for reflection to anyone struggling or grieving as a result of drug and alcohol addiction and is free to attend. Entry is via the glass doors at the west end (under the tower) from 6.30pm with the service commencing at 7.00pm. Free refreshments will be offered after the service and The Matthew Project team will be available for anyone that wishes to talk.

SATURDAY

Saturday 25 September 7pm. AFTER THE STORM - A gala concert at St Peter Mancroft of organ music that was written by people experiencing or observing the storminess of life. It will include pieces by Bach and Mendelssohn along with improvisation based on the exhibition's artwork and the hymn 'It is well with my soul', brought to the audience by organist John Overton. This concert launches an appeal for funds to restore the St Stephen's organ. All details about this project are on the St Stephen's website.

<https://www.ststephensnorwich.org/organ-restoration/> Although this concert is free with donations at the door, anyone wanting to attend does need to book via the St Stephen's website <https://www.ststephensnorwich.org/after-the-storm/> or by calling in at the Cafe between 10 - 3 each day.

SUNDAY

COMMUNITY RIVER CLEAN-UP ALONG THE RIVER WENSUM

To mark World Rivers Day there is a community clean-up of the banks of the River Wensum starting at 11am on Sunday 26 September. We'll be finishing by 1pm. You would be most welcome to join us, if only for part of the time. We're meeting down by the river at Pull's Ferry and will provide all the equipment you need. If interested please contact Peter Cutting (plasticpeter@verrotech.com) for further details. Thank you.

As we witness the unfolding situation in AFGHANISTAN and prepare to welcome Afghan citizens to our country, the Bishop of Norwich has relaunched his Refugee Fund. If you wish to donate please visit <https://www.dioceseofnorwich.org/news/refugee-fund-re-launched-in-response-to-afghanistan-crisis/> Or donate by cheque: make it payable to 'NDBF Ltd' and post to: 109 Dereham Road, Easton, Norwich, NR9 5ES. To make a bank transfer using these details: Payment reference: Bishop's Refugee Fund. Sort code: 20-62-61. Account number: 30674508. The website link also offers ways practical support can be offered.

FUTURE EVENTS

On Sunday 3 October our Master of Music ASHLEY GROTE will be running his 6th London marathon in aid of Great Ormond Street Hospital, once again in the official hospital mascot 'Bernard the Bear'. As some of you will be aware, Emily is recovering from a major operation at GOSH this summer and the family are so grateful to the cathedral community for all their thoughts and prayers during this time. Ashley needs to raise a further £10,000 for the Emily Grote TeamGOSH fund to reach £100,000. If you would like to support him you can do so online at www.justgiving.com/fundraising/teamemilygrote2021 or send a cheque payable to 'GOSHCC' to 53a The Close, Norwich, NR1 4EG.
